PART 1 - General Information IFFR

1.1 ABOUT IFFR

International Film Festival Rotterdam aims to offer a quality selection of worldwide independent, innovative cinema and visual arts. Devoted to actively supporting independent filmmaking from around the globe, IFFR is the essential hub for discovering film talent and for catching the early buzz on many world and international premieres.

IFFR 2022 takes place from 26 January to 6 February 2022.

1.2 PROGRAMME OUTLINE

IFFR's recurring programmes include Bright Future, Harbour, Limelight, Cinema Regained, Short & Mid-length and VR/Immersive. Thematic programmes may be added, varying per edition.

Bright Future

Harbour

Limelight

Cinema Regained

Short & Mid-length

VR/Immersive

1.2.1 Competitions

As part of the main festival programme, IFFR presents curated competition programmes to promote talented filmmakers: Tiger Competition (for feature-length films), Ammodo Tiger Short Competition (for short films) and Big Screen Competition (for feature-length films, sponsored by Dutch public broadcaster VPRO).

Tiger Competition

Eligible for Tiger Competition are directors of a 1st, 2nd or 3rd feature-length film, 60 minutes or longer, that are presented in World premiere at IFFR or, in consultation with the festival, in International or European premiere after no more than one festival event or territorial release between September 2021 and January 2022. An international jury will select a winner, from up to sixteen nominees, who receives an award and €40.000 to be shared between the film's director and producer. In addition, within the Tiger Competition, the jury bestows two Jury Awards for exceptional artistic achievement, each worth €10.000.

Ammodo Tiger Short Competition

Eligible for Ammodo Tiger Short Competition are directors with a short film less than 60 minutes. The film should have its world, international or European premiere in Rotterdam. During the festival an international jury selects three winners who will each receive an award and €5000.

Big Screen Competition (VPRO Big Screen Award)

Big Screen Competition comprises up to sixteen selected films having their World premiere at IFFR. Exceptions may be made, at IFFR's discretion, for films with an International or European premiere after no more than one festival event or territorial release in the five months leading up to the festival.

The nominated films will be judged by a jury of five enthusiast festival audience members.

The winning film will be released theatrically in the Netherlands and broadcasted on television in the Netherlands. The VPRO Big Screen Award is worth a total of €30.000. Half of this amount is for the filmmaker; the other half is to be spent on the Dutch theatrical release by the Dutch distributor.

BankGiro Loterij Audience Award

All feature length films that have had their first public screening after 1 January the year prior to the festival are eligible for the BankGiro Loterij Audience Award, chosen by the festival audience through voting. The prize comprises €10.000.

Other Awards

Other awards presented in the context of IFFR include, but are not necessarily limited to, FIPRESCI Award, KNF Award, IFFR Youth Jury Award.

PART 2 - Submissions

Submission to IFFR is open to features, creative documentaries, experimental films, short films and innovative visual productions for digital media. Please take note of all eligibility criteria in the Terms and Conditions before submitting your work.

Participation in International Film Festival Rotterdam by submitting the work and/or accepting IFFR's invitation implies acceptance of the Terms and Conditions by the filmmaker, producers and rights holders.

The film should be submitted online through the IFFR entry form in your personal Account.

2.1 Eligibility criteria

Submissions to the festival are open to feature films, creative documentaries, experimental films, short and mid-length films and innovative visual productions for digital media.

The following eligibility criteria must be taken into account when submitting a film to the festival.

1. All submissions should be completed after 1 January the calendar year prior to the festival. For IFFR 2022, this means the film should be completed after 1 January 2021.
2. Films previously submitted to the Festival and were not selected, will not be reconsidered for the 2022 Festival.
3. Films that have already screened in The Netherlands are excluded from submission to the festival.

4. Student films, with the exception of post-graduate works, are excluded from submission to the festival.

The following conditions apply in case of digital festival screenings prior to IFFR:

- If the film has been screened with geo-block, our regular premiere status rules apply.
- If the film has been screened without geo-block and was available worldwide, a maximum of 1500 views in total is allowed in order for the film to be eligible for IFFR selection.

In both cases, the film may only have been available online for a maximum of 20 days.

If the film does not comply with the eligibility criteria, it will not be taken into consideration for selection.

2.2 Submission deadlines IFFR 2022

- Deadline Feature films
 - 6 October 2021
- Deadlines Short and Mid-length films (up to 60 minutes)
 - Films (up to 60 min.) completed before 1 July: 25 August 2021
 - Films (up to 60 min.) completed after 1 July: 22 September 2021
- Deadline VR/Immersive
 - 22 September 2021

2.3 Submission fees IFFR 2022

- Feature films
 - €55 (ex. VAT)
- Short and Mid-length films (up to 60 minutes)
 - €30 (ex. VAT)
- VR/Immersive
 - €30 (ex. VAT)

Once the form is submitted and the submission fee paid in full before the deadline, the entry form will be processed. The contact person will receive a confirmation email once the form has been processed. Processing of the form may take up to 4 weeks after the submission has been completed.

2.4 Preview copy

To complete the submission IFFR requires a preview copy.

The preview copy should be uploaded to Vimeo and the link should be added to the online entry form. The Vimeo link should be private, downloadable and available up until the festival.

The preview copy may be a work in progress, which must be stated in the entry form. The phase of the progress should be clearly stated in the description of the preview copy.

All preview copies must be submitted with English subtitles, with the exception of English and Dutch spoken films as well as films with no dialogue.

Please note that submitting a DCP or non-Vimeo copy for previewing purposes should be authorised by the festival. Please contact the Programme Department at programme@iffr.com.

2.5 Late submissions

Incomplete and/or late submissions will not be taken into consideration. Please note that entry fees paid after the deadline has passed cannot be refunded and no guarantee can be given as to the inclusion of these entries in the viewing process.

PART 3 - Selected Films

3.1 INVITATION AND ACCEPTANCE CONDITIONS

3.1.1 Invitation

Upon selection, the Programme Department will send an official invitation to the contact person/rights holder of the film. This invitation includes information on:

- The programme or competition the film is selected for
- The festival format
- The hospitality protocol
- Confidentiality agreement
- Request for confirmation of the invitation

When the invitation is accepted by the rights holder, they accept the Terms and Conditions as stated in this document.

3.1.2 Screening fees

As a non-profit organisation aiming to promote new films and filmmakers, IFFR does not offer screening fees to its selected films.

Exceptions may be made for archival titles included in retrospective programmes.

3.2 HOSPITALITY PROTOCOL

Upon invitation, IFFR will inform the director and/or rights holder of the hospitality protocol. The hospitality protocol will contain variables depending on the premiere status of the invited film, the programme it has been selected for, or matters such as Dutch distribution rights.

Exceptions to, and execution of the hospitality protocol are at the discretion of IFFR.

PART 4 - Publicity and Press

4.1 Announcements and publications

Press releases, announcements to the public and (online) publications about the selection are at the discretion of IFFR.

4.2 Publicity materials

All Publicity Contact persons of selected films, as registered in the entry form, will receive a request for publicity materials upon confirming participation in the festival. These materials will be used in festival publications and for distribution to press and festival guests.

4.2.1 Required publicity materials

For catalogue and other publicity purposes, IFFR must receive for each selected film a completed entry form and the materials requested by the Programme Information Team. This includes a preview screening copy.

The requested materials should be sent/submitted as soon as possible upon acceptance of the invitation, but no later than two weeks after the acceptance. The festival accepts no liability in the event that its publications reproduce inaccuracies in submitted materials.

4.3 Credits

In principle IFFR's catalogue and website publications will include the following technical and artistic credits: original title, international title, countr(y)(ies) of production, year of production/first public screening, premiere status, format, length, director, production company, producer, sales company, print source, screenplay, cinematography, editing, production design, sound, music, principal cast.

4.4 Publicity/catalogue writings

Publicity and catalogue texts are entirely at the discretion of the festival.

4.5 Excerpts

IFFR is permitted to use excerpts, with a maximum of three (3) minutes, nationally and internationally, for promotional purposes. For short films, the total duration of the excerpts is not to exceed more than 10% of the film running time. In the event that excerpts are not available, the festival is permitted to copy one or more excerpts from the film for promotional use prior to and during the festival only.

4.6 Promotion

For the promotion of the entire selection and of each selected film, the festival website is allowed to use any still, photo or digital film clip (less than 3' duration).

4.7 Video Library

Selected films will be made available in the Video Library for a set amount of time before and during the festival. The Video Library is accessible exclusively to the festival organisation and accredited press and industry professionals through IFFR's closed circuit server. For this purpose all participants will be requested to make available a high resolution .mp4, .mov or QuickTime h.264 version of their film for encoding purposes.

By confirming participation in the festival, rights holders grant permission for their film to be included in the Video Library, unless stated otherwise in the submitted entry form.

PART 5 - SCREENINGS AND FILM SHIPPING

5.1 SCREENING FORMATS

- a) All selected films must provide IFFR with a screening copy (or copies) of the film 4 weeks prior to the start of the festival. For theatrical screenings this must be a DCP, or another file as specified by IFFR. For online screenings, this must be a high-resolution .mov or .mp4 file. Technical specifications will be supplied by the Programme Department in advance of the shipping request.
- b) All non-English language films should be delivered with English subtitles - not burned in the copy.
- c) All English language films are requested to be delivered with closed captions in English, with a description of audio cues and transcript of spoken dialogue.

5.2 FILM SHIPPING AND TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

IFFR works with FilmFetch for shipping DCP's and digital files in a secured, sustainable and economical manner. An upload link will be provided by the Programme Department.

If online shipping is not accessible to the print source, the DCP should be delivered on a EXT2/3 formatted CRU dataport Sata drive to the IFFR office. The address will be provided by the Programme Department.

If the DCP is encrypted, a DKDM should be provided. Sending in separate KDM's is not encouraged and should be discussed with the Programme Department beforehand.

Presentation of other formats and video systems or delivery through any other type of disk, formatting or licenses requires the authorisation of the festival. IFFR reserves the right to exclude a film from the programme in case of delivery of unauthorised formats.

In case of online screenings, IFFR Programme Department will advise on the required deliverables and relevant security protocol.

5.2.1 Shipping deadlines

IFFR's Programme Department will inform the print source in a timely manner on the deadline for deliverables and the according shipping instructions. For testing purposes and proper preparation for the successful screening of the film, the print should be delivered by the deadline. The Programme Department should be immediately informed by the contact person of any delivery delays that may occur.

IFFR is not liable for any errors during screenings if the print was delivered after the set deadline.

5.3 SCHEDULING

5.3.1 Physical screenings

IFFR will schedule selected films for up to five public screenings. Any additional public or private screenings will be scheduled only with the permission of the rights holder.

A Press & Industry screening (theatrical or digital) will be scheduled at the discretion of IFFR for feature films that have their World, International or European premiere at IFFR.

The dates, times and venues of the screenings will be determined by IFFR and shared with the rights holder upon completion of the scheduling process.

5.3.2 Online screenings

IFFR may require to schedule online screenings on IFFR's digital screening platform. Online screenings are accessible exclusively from the Netherlands with a limited viewing capacity, unless otherwise agreed upon between IFFR and the rights holder.

Such online screenings can take place at a scheduled time, 'On Demand' within a limited period of time during the festival, or both.

In total, no more than five public screenings will be scheduled, whether they are physical screenings, online screenings, or a combination of both.

5.3.3 Press & Industry screenings

The scheduling of physical Press & Industry screenings is entirely at the discretion of IFFR. Press & Industry screenings are not part of the maximum amount of five public screenings.

Online Press & Industry screenings may be organised in the same manner as public online screenings on IFFR's digital screening platform, unless otherwise communicated upon invitation.

5.4 SCREENING PROTOCOL

Film directors and other relevant guests invited by IFFR agree to be present in person, or otherwise online, for at least 2 of the scheduled film screenings for an introduction and/or a question-and-answer session (Q&A).

DISCLAIMER

Please be informed that the Terms and Conditions stated in this document are subject to change and are at the discretion of IFFR.
