General Terms and Conditions and House Rules International Film Festival Rotterdam

1. When visiting IFFR locations, one declares to have taken notice of and to agree with the terms and conditions and house rules as they apply during International Film Festival Rotterdam.
2. The general terms and conditions of International Film Festival Rotterdam can be found on the website, <https://IFFR.com/en/general-conditions>.
3. Everyone is obliged to follow instructions from the organisation, security and personnel.
4. It is prohibited to carry weapons, weaponlike objects or objects that can be used as weapons. In case such objects are found, access to festival venues will be permanently refused. If a weapon listed in the Weapons and Ammunition Act is found, this will be reported to the police immediately.
5. It is prohibited to use, possess, trade or process drugs or hallucinogens. If you act in violation of this provision, access will be refused and it will be reported to the police.
6. It is not allowed to consume your own drinks or food at IFFR locations.
7. No alcohol is provided to minors. Proof of identity may be requested when purchasing alcoholic beverages.
8. It is not allowed to bring your own recording equipment to festival locations.
9. If a visitor is guilty of any form of violence or threat of violence, the police will be informed.
10. The organisation reserves the right to deny anyone access to the festival at any time.
11. Access to all IFFR locations will be refused if:
 - a. You are in an apparent state of intoxication;
 - b. One is or has been involved in any way in disturbances, both inside and outside IFFR locations;
 - c. Insults are made towards staff and/or other visitors;
 - d. The general terms and conditions and house rules are not adhered to.
12. The management, the owners of the location or persons working at this location cannot be held liable for any injury and/or material or immaterial damage that visitors to the location may experience.
13. You may be asked for identification. In the Netherlands, one is required by law to carry identification.
14. Any form of hateful and/or discriminatory behaviour will not be tolerated. This includes, but is not limited to, racism, fascism and/or nationalism, homophobia and/or transphobia.
15. The organisation reserves the right to record people upon entry or at festival locations on both image and sound devices. These recordings can be used by the organisation without owing any compensation (monetary or otherwise) to the visitors.

In the event of an emergency, we notify the police.

Thank you for your cooperation.
